Office Order

In order to contain the spread of Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19), some precautionary measures are required to be taken by all the employees and the Department as well. To comply this it has been ensured by the department by way of order that 50% of Group B and C officers are required to attend office every day and the remaining 50% staff is instructed to work from home. But it is understood that the results to work from home are not up to the mark, therefore, It is directed that the officials who are working from home on a particular day; should report their work on next day to their higher officer as what works have been done by them.

This issues with the approval of Commissioner.
